The second annual Food For All fundraising initiative launched on Monday September 11, 2023, and encourages the financial community to show their support and make an impact on the lives of Georgia families in need. "We are so delighted to bring back Food For All for this second year and team up with financial professionals in our community to make a difference in the fight against hunger," said Kyle Waide, President & CEO of the Atlanta Community Food Bank. "This friendly fundraising competition invites area financial teams to step up to the plate and show their support for an issue that greatly impacts our neighbors. We are incredibly honored to have them be our allies in eliminating hunger."

About Atlanta Community Food Bank

The Atlanta Community Food Bank works to end hunger with the food, people and big ideas needed to ensure our neighbors have the nourishment to lead healthy and productive lives. Far too many people in our own community experience hunger every day, including children, seniors and working families. Through more than 700 community-based, nonprofit partners in 29 counties, we help more than 611,000 people get healthy food every year. Our goal is that all hungry people across metro Atlanta and north Georgia will have access to the nutritious meals they need when they need them. It takes the power of our whole community to make that possible. In 2023, the Atlanta Community Food Bank distributed its one billionth meal. Join us at ACFB.org.
