With fifteen years of hands-on experience, Matthew's reputation as a steadfast and resourceful professional is well-established not only in Illinois but throughout the nation. Sonette Magnus, a Partner at Thompson Coburn and Board Member/Co-Founder of the CRA, praised Matthew's vast engagements with numerous companies, on behalf of national and global commercial lenders, law firms, and other critical stakeholders.

I'm privileged to align with the CRA's impactful mission ... I'm eager to harness Newpoint's TRAIL expertise to amplify the CRA's objectives across the country.”

The CRA is dedicated to enhancing court receivership's value (federal and state), and it offers an enriching platform where professionals can learn from each other, collaborate, and influence receivership practices both in the Midwest and nationally. Sharing his enthusiasm for the new role, Matthew Brash said, "I'm privileged to align with the CRA's impactful mission. The complexity of a receiver's role underlines the importance of education and sharing best practices. I'm eager to harness Newpoint's TRAIL expertise to amplify the CRA's objectives across the country.”
