

Cairo Announce New Singer, New Single and Special Gig Date

ASHEVILLE, NC, USA, September 18, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Sarah Bayley has left Cairo due to other commitments. She leaves wishing the band all the best. On behalf of the band, Rob Cottingham, band founder, advised: "We would like to thank Sarah for the last four years. We had fun along the way, and wish her the very best of luck for the future."

"In happier news, we were blown away by this lady's voice recently and we are delighted to announce that Kat (pictured) has joined the band on vocals."

"She is ready to gig our existing material and is already working on new songs with us. Kat has an amazing voice and tone, and we would ask you all to warmly welcome her into the band, and into our prog family."

Kat advises: "I was intrigued by Cairo's music and instantly fell in love with the song 'Glow'. Joining the band is different; exciting and an amazing adventure that I am thrilled to be a part of."

In further news, Rob announces: "We are also pleased to release our brand new single 'Salvation' featuring Kat on vocals, and which will feature on our next album - details of which will be published in due course. We hope you enjoy our new song and video."

"We are also excited to announce a special one-off Nemesis Show on the 29th October when we invite you to party with us at Unit Nine in Milton Keynes <https://www.unitninemk.com/> and to welcome Kat to the band. We will be playing the whole of the Nemesis album - plus some old favourites and some brand new material."

The venue has an amazing state of the art sound and lighting system unique to the area and is situated right by a train station making it easily accessible for all - and has plenty of parking, too.

"We are also delighted to say that our special guests are Square Wild who will most definitely add to the party atmosphere. See more about them here:
