Voices Rising Film Festival amplifies unique filmmakers' voices Creating awareness for the vital work underrepresented Artists

PATCHOGUE, NEW YORK, UNITED STATES, September 19, 2023

/EINPresswire.com/ -- The Voices Rising Film Festival has announced that this year's screenings will be happening between Friday September 30th and Sunday October 7th, 2023, at The Plaza Cinema and Media Arts Center in Patchogue, Long Island NY. There will also be a virtual option for experiencing the magic from the comfort of your own home as well, on the Voices Rising Channel. Each year, the Voices Rising Film Festival presents films that create awareness for subject matters deserving special attention, giving minority independent filmmakers a unique space to share their important work. This year's lineup includes films featuring themes of love, loss, family, community and resilience as well as thought provoking deeply moving stories about the struggles of everyday life.

Festival Founder Jaret Martino said "I am passionate about creating safe spaces that celebrate and amplify voices that are too often silenced. I'm proud to be a Long Island Native, in the LGBTQIA+ community and have Cherokee Indian bloodlines. The Voices Rising Film Festival is an exciting event that offers the chance to witness as important as connecting with industry and moving your project forward we will move the winning Films into consideration with partner Festivals that have live screening events that takes place in New York and Los Angeles and the focus is to help secure four wall Distribution for the winning Feature Film. The team behind the festival has a wide range of professional experience which includes every facet of Entertainment. Building an egoless environment with heart centered visions for human rights, LGBTQ, diversity and inclusion, women's empowerment is our mission. Making this not only a memorable event but an important gathering where each artist's voice is heard through their choice of expression. We celebrate and support Independent, new, and Alternative filmmakers, not just during our online competition but throughout the year through Production support, streaming Distribution relationships and marketing.

ABOUT THE PLAZA CINEMA & MEDIA ARTS CENTER:

The Plaza Cinema & Media Arts Center is a non-profit, 501(c)(3), community-supported organization. Its mission is to celebrate the power and magic of film as an art form and as a medium for multicultural exchange and social responsibility by:

- Screening quality mainstream, independent, and foreign films, and opera and theatre productions captured live from world stages
- Offering field trips, medial literacy workshops, and classes in filmmaking and animation
- Contributing to the economic and cultural development of the community
- Presenting curated series and festivals with guest speakers

As a cultural center, The Plaza attracts tourism. Many out-of-town patrons who come to see a film or take a class also shop at neighboring businesses and dine at local restaurants. Media Arts classes provide creative outlets for children and teens. Field trips, media literacy workshops, and professional development classes for teachers create a vital synergy between education and the arts. As a community-supported organization, The Plaza is a safe, inclusive, and equitable public forum for various community groups, individuals, artists, musicians, filmmakers, and non-profit advocacy groups to connect, collaborate, discuss, and support each other, particularly when facing life's ups and downs.
