A Word from the Founder:

"Our love for pets and a vision for a healthier, happier world for them led to the inception of Kedi Labs. We're not just launching a company; we're introducing a movement towards better pet health, grounded in technology and propelled by passion. Our goal is to make pet care more affordable and accessible to all pets by offering accurate at-home, fear-free testing options for cats and dogs.," says Michelle Frye, DVM, SM, the visionary behind Kedi Labs.

Upcoming Initiatives:

Kedi Labs will soon unveil a line of advanced pet health products, from Rapid Tests that provide results in 10 minutes to advanced SPECTRA PCR panels and BioScreen Cultures for common gastrointestinal, respiratory, urinary and dermatologic ailments in pets. Additionally, the company is collaborating with global veterinary diagnostic experts, animal shelters, and pet rescue groups to drive community initiatives.

Join the Movement:

Pet enthusiasts, retailers, animal shelters and rescues are invited to join the Kedi Labs journey. Stay updated with the latest news, product launches, and events by subscribing to the Kedi Labs newsletter and following the brand on social media.
