

Creative BioMart Released Big Promotion for This New Semester

Creative BioMart announced earlier this month the big back-to-school promotion for researchers worldwide.

SHIRLEY, NY, USA, September 19, 2023
/EINPresswire.com/ -- Creative BioMart, a biotechnology company specialized in providing quality protein products and protein manufacturing techniques, announced earlier this month the big back-to-school promotion for researchers worldwide to help them be prepared for their new projects in the new semester.

Creative BioMart is a leading provider of recombinant protein products and protein expression-related services with the commitment to harnessing the advancements in protein expression and purification technology to give its customers access to robust, efficient, and reliable solutions for most complex biology questions.

In response to customers' needs, Creative BioMart continuously launches popular categories such as cytokines, PROTAC targets, GPCRs, labeled proteins, full length proteins, virus-related proteins, CAR-T cell targets, biomarkers, CD antigens, etc. In addition, the company offers therapeutic proteins, diagnostic proteins, and GMP proteins in accordance with the demands of industrial customers.

To serve scientists better in specific fields, Creative BioMart now have a comprehensive list of sub-brands that are established for certain research needs, including: Creative BioMart Therapeutic Proteins, Creative BioMart Recombinant Allergen, Creative BioMart Nanocage, Creative BioMart Full length protein, Creative BioMart Protein Engineering, Creative BioMart Assay Kit, Creative BioMart Pyrogen-free, Creative BioMart Cosmetic Ingredients, etc.

To show its gratitude for all its customers and help them be prepared for their new projects at the new semester, Creative BioMart launched this novel back-to-school promotion. All products can have 10% off and all services can have 5-10% off from the beginning of September, 2023 to the end of this month.

To get this discount, customers need to paste the code "B2SCM23" in the "project description" box when making an inquiry or purchase. And the discount will be added directly.

According to Linna, the chief marketing staff at Creative BioMart, the discount is also valid for its sub-brand Creative BioMart Microbe.

"Jumpstart your new school year with our 10% promotion. Let's navigate the intricacies of biology together and unravel the wonders hidden within nature's finest machinery. Harness the power of our innovative biological solutions, designed to empower scientists, researchers, and academia across the globe." Added Linna.
