The 60% and 80% Payout Account Models offer traders the chance to earn industry-leading commission rates, setting a new standard for payout structures in the prop trading industry. These models provide traders with higher profit shares, enabling them to retain a greater portion of their trading profits and accelerate their financial growth.

"We are excited to introduce our new account models with 60% and 80% payouts, reflecting our commitment to offering traders unparalleled earning potential", said Ruggero Catalano, CEO and Founder of OFP Funding. "At OFP Funding, we firmly believe in rewarding traders for their skill, dedication, and success. These new account models reaffirm our commitment to empowering traders to achieve their financial goals and build prosperous trading careers."

OFP also acknowledges the pivotal role emotions play in trading, which has led to the launch of an exclusive Multilingual Mental Coach Program, overseen by two expert psychologists. This resource is accessible to all traders who have acquired an account. Sessions can be conveniently booked through their personal Dashboard, with language options including English, Spanish, and Italian.

Key features of the 60% and 80% Payout Account Models

Competitive Payout Rates: Traders operating under the 60% and 80% Payout Account Models will benefit from industry-leading commission rates while getting funded without the requirement for challenges or verifications. After getting an account, the trading starts within 24 hours, allowing customers to start working towards their trading profits immediately and reach their goals faster.

Enhanced Profit Potential: The new account models enable traders to capitalize on their trading skills and maximize their earnings without any obstacles. With more favorable profit-sharing arrangements and instant funding, traders have the opportunity to achieve their financial goals at an accelerated pace, compared to other instant funding prop firms.

Robust Trading Infrastructure: Traders utilizing the 60% and 80% Payout Account Models will have access to OFP Funding's ergonomic Dashboard that includes in-depth statistics about their trading accounts, 2-minute equity graph, cumulative statistics, profit calendar and an economic calendar with relevant events that may affect the movement of markets. This robust infrastructure empowers traders to execute their strategies seamlessly and efficiently.

Comprehensive Support: OFP remains committed to providing comprehensive support to its traders. The prop firm's Support Team is available 24/7 in order to ensure all trader's queries are answered. Furthermore, it offers an exclusive multilingual Mental Coach Program led by two expert psychologists in the industry, available to all traders who have purchased an account in English, Spanish and Italian.

The introduction of the 60% and 80% Payout Account Models further solidifies OFP Funding's position as a leading prop trading firm that prioritizes traders' success, with a community of over 10,000 people. The prop firm aims to attract and retain top talent within the trading community, fostering a collaborative environment where traders can thrive.
