

Life Elements Adds New “Professional Strength” Formulation To Best-Selling CBD Muscle & Joint Relief Collection

Life Elements has released Professional Strength versions of its best-selling CBD Muscle & Joint Relief formulation.

ATASCADERO, CA, US, September 19, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Life Elements has released Professional Strength versions of its best-selling CBD Muscle & Joint Relief formulation. The move is a direct response to customer feedback and requests for a stronger formulation to ease chronic tight muscles and joints, aches, and soreness.

The quest to find a balanced composition to target pain issues began before CBD came on the scene.

Life Elements focused on curating an arsenal of natural ingredients and inflammation-reducing botanicals including calendula, ginger, turmeric, camphor, and cinnamon. The addition of other proven homeopathic elements, and eventually CBD, to amplify efficacy, catapulted the Muscle & Joint Relief solution into a best-selling product.

In an effort to combat deeper body aches, Life Elements began creating a stronger formulation for athletes and those suffering from more intensive and longer-lasting irritations. After extensive research and testing, the brand’s founder Martha Van Inwegen announced the release of their Professional Strength version to promote and improve healthy lifestyles.

“We are happy to introduce Professional Strength Muscle and Joint Relief for those customers who are looking for higher levels of efficacy.”

Professional Strength Muscle & Joint Relief is available in the following dosages for use safely and as directed:
