ŞİŞLI, ISTANBUL, TÜRKİYE, September 21, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Turkey is fast becoming a popular health tourism destination and the reasons for this are quite obvious. With its combination of world-class healthcare facilities, experienced doctors and affordable prices, Turkey is an attractive option for those seeking medical treatment abroad.

In recent years, there has been an increase in the number of foreigners travelling to Turkey for medical treatment. This is due to the fact that Turkey offers high-quality medical care at a fraction of the cost of other developed countries. In addition, Turkey has a large number of hospitals that are accredited by international organizations such as the Joint Commission International (JCI).

One of the main reasons why Turkey is such a popular destination for medical tourism is its experienced doctors. Turkey has a large number of experienced doctors who have been trained in some of the best medical schools in the world. In addition, many of these doctors have experience working in developed countries, so they are familiar with the latest medical technologies and treatments.

Another reason why Turkey is a popular destination for medical tourism is its affordable prices. The cost of medical treatment in Turkey is often a fraction of the cost of treatment in developed countries. This is due to the fact that Turkey has lower labour and overhead costs. In addition, the Turkish government offers a number of incentives to foreign investors, which has helped to keep the cost of medical treatment in Turkey low.

The combination of world-class healthcare, experienced doctors and affordable prices makes Turkey an attractive option for those seeking medical treatment abroad.

HALAL HEALTH TOURISM

The Muslim travel market is one of the fastest growing sectors in the travel industry and is estimated to be worth $300 billion by 2024. Therefore, halal health tourism is on the rise.

Halal medical tourism is a type of medical tourism that provides services to Muslim patients and offers treatment and services in accordance with Islamic law. This includes everything including halal-certified food and accommodation, places of worship and gender-segregated treatment areas.

There is a growing number of halal medical tourism destinations around the world, such as Turkey and the United Arab Emirates. These destinations are attracting Muslim patients from around the world, attracted by the quality of care offered as well as the opportunity to experience a different culture.

Halal medical tourism is a growing industry that will continue to increase in popularity in the coming years.

In recent years, Turkey has positioned itself to compete with developed countries in the healthcare sector. Turkey has now become a treatment centre of choice for many patients from around the world.
