

Traci Slatton's "The Sculptor's Wife" Captures Impact DOCS Awards Best Documentary Short Ahead of WWI Memorial Unveil

Capturing Love, Art, and Dedication: Traci Lynn Slatton's 'The Sculptor's Wife' Traci Lynn Slatton wins Impact DOCS Awards 'Best Documentary Short'

LOS ANGELES, CA, USA, September 27, 2023

/EINPresswire.com/ -- The much-anticipated unveiling of the World War I Memorial in Washington, D.C., set for September 13, 2024, becomes the vivid backdrop of Director Traci Lynn Slatton's multi-award-winning short documentary, "The Sculptor's Wife." Delving deep into the monumental journey of art, love, and dedication, the film has captured the Best Documentary Short at the esteemed Impact DOCS Awards.

The documentary intimately captures the nuances of the relationship between Slatton and her husband, Master Sculptor Sabin Howard, as he races against time to sculpt the Memorial's 60-foot tableau with its 38 lifelike figures.

But Slatton's filmmaking journey is just beginning.

Currently, she is working on her next short film, "One Soldier's Journey," which narrates the story of veteran Ricky Zambrano. Zambrano, who stands as the veteran model for Sabin Howard's sculptures in the WWI Memorial, embodies the spirit and sacrifice of countless soldiers, making his portrayal in the memorial deeply significant.

Additionally, Slatton is also at the helm of an expansive feature documentary titled "Heroic." An extraordinary making-of documentary sculpted from over 4000hrs of footage, that promises to take audiences through the entire process, from the moment of winning the bid for the Memorial to its grand unveiling.
