TALLAHASSEE, FLORIDA, UNITED STATES, September 20, 2023

/EINPresswire.com/ -- The Florida State Parks Foundation is proud to have been selected as the philanthropic partner for Intuition Ale Works' Sing Out Loud Session IPA – the official beer of this week's Sing Out Loud Festival in St. Augustine.

The Sing Out Loud Festival begins Friday at the Francis Field Showcase in St. Augustine, just steps from the iconic Castillo de San Marcos National Monument. Headlining artists include Mumford & Sons, the Black Keys and Lord Huron.

In celebration of the festival, as well as the historically, culturally and naturally significant state parks found in northeast Florida, Jacksonville-based brewery Intuition Ale Works will donate $1 to the Florida State Parks Foundation for every Sing Out Loud Session IPA sold in its taproom on East Bay Street from Sept. 1-30, 2023.

The Florida State Parks Foundation is the official 501(c)(3) nonprofit partner of Florida State Parks. All festival attendees are invited to visit the Foundation's tent in the vendor area to learn more about Florida's award-winning state parks, trails and historic sites.

"We are honored to partner with Intuition Ale Works and the Sing Out Loud Festival, and we thank them for being such dedicated supporters of our state parks," Foundation CEO Julia Gill Woodward said. "In fact, a visit to St. Augustine's amazing Anastasia State Park and Fort Mose Historic State Park would be the perfect complement to a weekend of great live music."

"We are so excited to sponsor the Sing Out Loud Festival once again," said Intuition Ale Works general manager Lindsay Hawkins. "It has become such a significant part of the musical and

The Foundation has previously partnered with the St. Augustine Amphitheater and the St. Johns County Tourism and Development Council in support of the 1738 fort reconstruction project at Fort Mose Historic State Park.
