

Glorium Technologies is Recognized as a Company of the Month in the USA

Glorium Technologies is excited to announce that we have been named Company of the Month in the United States by TechBehemoths

PRINCETON, NJ, USA, September 27, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Glorium's unique work was recognized last year when it appeared on TechBehemoths' list of winning companies. In 2023, Glorium is excited to continue this trend, offering a wide range of high-quality services. We deeply appreciate the honor of being named Company of the Month in the United States by TechBehemoths.

The company specializes in sectors such as healthcare, real estate, and fintech, using its expertise to help startups develop transformative software applications that deliver great success. Additionally, the company has its own digital marketing agency for startups, assisting them in growing and transforming their businesses to the level of a unicorn.

This recognition is a true honor and a testament to the tireless efforts of our team. Over the past ten years our goal has been to help our clients avoid unnecessary expenditure on unsuitable products”

Andrei Kasyanau, CEO of Glorium Technologies

About the award:

TechBehemoths monthly selects the top three companies from ten countries based on user interest in the platform. The winning company's profile page is proudly displayed with a badge indicating the month and year of the award.

The selection process is based on a combination of objective criteria in the first and second stages, with profile strength being the most important factor. A robust portfolio, positive reviews, and transparent company information are pivotal in building trust among potential clients and fostering cooperation.
