Originating in Beirut 40 years ago as a small bakery, Barbar has quickly become a firm favourite amongst lovers of authentic delicious cuisine – cementing itself as the go-to Lebanese restaurant in the region.

The brand currently operates across two locations in Dubai including Hessa Street and Business Bay, and can be found in Place Vendôme Mall and Bin Al Sheikh Towers, Salwa Road in Qatar. The brand also recently made its entry into KSA with a branch on Tahlia Street, Riyadh. Future plans for the brand include the launch of operations in Abu Dhabi, with further details set to be announced in due course.

Walid Hajj, Co-founder and CEO of Lavoya, says: "Barbar has always been synonymous with Lebanese traditions and culture, Barbar has become a true stable when it comes to authentic Lebanese cuisine and is popular with both dine-in guests and those who prefer food from the comfort of their homes. The new menu additions come as part of our continued efforts to listen to market and consumer needs, and allow them to experience new dishes curated by our chefs.

The new items will be available for dine-in, take-away and delivery at all branches. Regular updates can be found on Instagram: @Barbargcc
