

Softbuilder Announces Updates to AbstraLinX on Salesforce AppExchange, the World's Leading Enterprise Cloud Marketplace

Softbuilder's customers can now benefit from effortless Salesforce metadata management powered by generative AI

PARIS, FRANCE, September 27, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Softbuilder today announced it has updated AbstraLinX: Leading Salesforce Metadata Management Solution on Salesforce AppExchange, providing customers with new opportunities to unlock productivity and efficiency with generative AI. AbstraLinX's new generative AI feature enables customers to automatically populate objects, fields, and relationships to existing Entity-Relationship Diagrams (ERDs) from user stories or natural language requirements.

Softbuilder is also integrating an advanced metadata query assistant, powered by the ChatGPT API, enabling users to interact with their data models using natural language. These generative AI capabilities extend to auto-generating descriptions for various elements, such as triggers, validation rules, and Apex classes.

AbstraLinX is currently available on AppExchange at <https://appexchange.salesforce.com/appxListingDetail?listingId=a0N3u00000MBrDHEA1>

AbstraLinX: Leading Salesforce Metadata Management Solution

AbstraLinX provides architects, administrators, developers, and business analysts with an easy-to-use and powerful tool for accessing, extracting, exploring, understanding, and documenting Salesforce metadata. It also effortlessly enables the creation of detailed Entity-Relationship Diagrams (ERDs). Data architects can use AbstraLinX to create data dictionaries and integrate Salesforce metadata into data glossaries, catalogs, and more.

Comments on the News

□ "We're excited to bring these advanced generative AI features to AbstraLinX," said M. Tadlaoui, CEO and Co-Founder of Softbuilder. "Our goal is to enhance the overall user experience by leveraging AI to simplify complex tasks, provide valuable insights, and increase productivity.
