Jake Greene, Commercial Sales Representative

honing his skills in construction, primarily in sales, design, and project management, with a distinguished residential outdoor living construction company in Nashville, TN. His adept understanding of construction materials, unwavering commitment to customer service, and impeccable project execution are set to amplify the values and services Coryell Roofing stands for.

In Jake's words, "If you look good and feel good, you can sell good," a testament to his belief in the importance of presenting oneself positively to leave an everlasting first impression. Beyond his professional prowess, Jake is a passionate musician, often finding solace in the strings of his guitar or the keys of his piano. His journey through music has been a source of personal rejuvenation and paved the way for enduring relationships in Nashville.

Transitioning into the commercial roofing landscape, Jake is buoyant about leveraging his wide array of experiences and insights to make a significant contribution. "I'm eager to integrate my learnings from the past 29 years into this new chapter with Coryell Roofing," Greene expresses with infectious enthusiasm.

Join us in warmly welcoming Jake Greene to the Coryell Roofing fold. With his confluence of professional acumen and intrinsic creativity, we're poised to scale newer heights and continue serving our clients with unparalleled excellence.
