Hailing from Tel Aviv, Israel, a young Bavli transitioned from a bullied, overweight child to an internationally acclaimed mentalist and entertainer. His spark was ignited upon witnessing Uri Gellar's captivating spoon-bending act on television when he was only 5 years old. Over his illustrious four-decade career, Bavli has showcased his prowess on numerous global stages, captivating audiences from 1200 appearances at Caesar's Palace in Las Vegas to countless television appearances worldwide. As a multi-award-winning performer, his accolades range from "Best Magician & Entertainer of the Decade" in Israel to "Best Performer and Presenter" on international platforms, among others.
