

Local Agency Eyes Up National Growth: A1 SEO Announces UK Scaling Up Plan After Achieving Significant Success In Scotland

Glasgow, Scotland – A1 SEO, a leading UK-based marketing agency that focuses on search engine optimisation, is excited to announce national growth and scaling up plans across the UK after achieving significant success in Scotland.

Established in 2014, A1 SEO is dedicated to championing SEO within the business community and, through its range of concrete, integrated marketing strategies that help businesses dominate their niche, has accomplished impressive growth in Glasgow and Edinburgh by offering specialist SEO advice in a number of popular industries, such as B2B, Shopify, E-Commerce, SaaS and WordPress.

With the intention to build on the company's current momentum, A1 SEO is curating an expert plan to expand its SEO services to the rest of the UK, including offering businesses tangible, transparent and positive local SEO, On-Page SEO, Outreach and Linkbuilding and SEO Audits. Lead SEO consultant at A1 SEO, Graham Grieve, said, "We are a highly efficient team of 15 search engine optimisation specialists. We only offer SEO as a service. This means that, unlike most generic digital marketing agencies, 100% of your budget spent with A1 SEO goes directly towards ranking your site higher in Google. We have over 8 years of experience ranking websites in some of the world's most competitive niches and know exactly what works. Our campaigns are fully transparent, meaning you are able to see exactly what work has been carried out on your website at any point. We also go to great lengths to educate our clients about SEO in a straightforward, no-nonsense way. It's usually me on the other end of the phone, so if you have any questions, please give me a call and together, we can start ranking your website higher in search engines."

A1 SEO are passionate about no-nonsense SEO campaigns that deliver a robust and long-lasting return on investment. Some of the company's services include:

Outreach and Linkbuilding

During the link building and outreach process, A1 SEO makes sure every link packs as much of a punch as possible. The company's process is based on 6 years of link building experience working on local, eCommerce and international SEO. It is a tried and tested method that delivers results month after month for clientele.

Local SEO

Local SEO focuses on targeting customers within a business's service area through location-based search and Google Maps. The expert team at A1 SEO have the experience to get a business dominating its local search area.

On-Page SEO

By focusing on on-page SEO, businesses can give their page more relevant tailored towards a specific group of keywords, which increases their ranks in search engines. Moreover, better quality content leads to a more engaged audience and getting elements like a website's title and description tags right has a direct impact on the number of visitors that will click on a listing on the search engine results page. A higher CTR (Click-through Rate) has been associated with higher rankings over time in literally hundreds of industry reports.

SEO Audit

An SEO strategy starts with a detailed analysis of a site's current technical, on-page and off-page elements. Audits are the building blocks for all SEO campaigns and allow A1 SEO to make actionable, data-based plans.

SEO Consulting and Training

The SEO specialists at A1 SEO are equipped to give business marketing teams professional guidance. The company is aware that many major corporations are eager to upgrade the skills of their employees and only use firms for the wider picture and strategic planning.

Due to this, A1 SEO has worked with and educated some of the biggest in-house marketing teams in the world, including those for FMCG, B2B, and B2C, from highlighting complex SEO challenges to devising full-scale search strategies. A1 SEO's team also offer on-site consultations.

Technical SEO

Whether a business is launching a new site or redesigning an old one, the health of its on-page content is paramount. Getting Google to properly access and understand a site is key to ranking, and A1 SEO can help with this by offering targeted technical SEO.
