

ellee ven Asks The Question We Wish We Did in “What Could He Possibly Do?”

USA, September 21, 2023

/EINPresswire.com/ -- New York City, NEW YORK— ellee ven and her band, The Groovalution, released her single, What Could He Possibly Do, on September 19th, 2023. This marks 12 singles that the performer, writer, and producer has released so far this year.

The Groovalution collaborates again with producer Terry Santiel on this track. Featured is super star guitar player Paul Jackson Jr whose career has spanned decades. He was even on Thriller! Paul’s performance is an amazing add to The Groovalution veteran members including Jody Giachello on drums, Jeff Motley on keys and Kern Brantley on the bass guitar. ellee ven collaborates again with rapper Prodéje on this song.

This song was inspired by a friends’ breakup and was crafted with the intension of paralleling the screaming heart strings and driving anger that can consume the severed relationship.

It was a little too late. Like a hug right after a slap in the face.”

“It was a little too late
Like a hug right after a slap in the face
The double cross was his art
A price to charge no body could pay

What could he possibly do to make her want to love him again

what could she possibly do

No blindness to betrayal like then.”

ellee ven’s work is proof that a vested interest in self-expression and creativity can power an artistic vision. She will top off the year with over 20 new singles in 2023 alone and another batch ready for release as soon as January 2024. Recording of these songs took place in collaboration with her band The Groovalution, at The Hit Factory in New York and at Larrabee Studios in California. ellee ven’s lifestyle brand is called The Groovalution.
