Hailing from Lafayette, Louisiana, Nabers shared that his path to college football deviated from the traditional route, as financial constraints prevented him from participating in the sport during his early years.

Nabers' football journey began his freshman year of high school when he played for Ovey Comeaux High School's freshman team. After a standout performance in seven-on-seven games and exceptional sophomore and junior seasons, Nabers received offers from 17 colleges. Despite being deemed ineligible to play his senior year, Nabers' tenacity and skill landed him a spot on the LSU Football team.

The episode also features humorous banter and insights into Nabers' personal preferences, such as his love for shrimp fettuccine and favorite movies. Nabers' story is one of determination and faith, offering inspiration to aspiring athletes and Tigers fans. "Grubbin' with G" promises more engaging conversations in upcoming episodes.
