/EINPresswire.com/ -- THE CAPTAINS

TABLE: Designed as an ongoing program featuring limited production runs comprised of only 200 bottles per release. Each batch is created from a single barrel and will be released one batch at a time. Crafted by the esteemed Master Distiller Crispin Cain, this series spotlights an array of ultra-premium Whiskey & Bourbons. Each bottle is encased in a custom-designed octagon collector's box with a special light base, illuminating the bottle to create a spectacular "Star Trek" themed collectible.

Introducing The Captain's Table Series

Members of this exclusive Captain's Table society will additionally obtain a distinctive metal coin medallion nestled within the bottle topper. Much like the saucer of the "U.S.S Enterprise-D", known for its detachability, the zenith of the Captain's Table topper features a detachable magnetic metal medallion. This exclusive coin is more than a collectible; it also acts as a key to unlock an array of special privileges including access to private tastings and exclusive virtual distillery experiences.

The Captains Table is an ongoing program, each batch is meticulously crafted, one Barrel at a time. Batch #1 sold out quickly and we are now opening up sales of Batch #2.”
