GARDENA, CA, UNITED STATES, September 26, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Black Business CoOp, Inc. (BBCO) is thrilled to announce the launch party for the Gardena Chapter.

BBCO is more than an organization; it's a movement of transformation. Be a part of this historic journey as we redefine Black excellence worldwide.

Networking Opportunities: Connect with like-minded individuals, entrepreneurs, and professionals from around the globe. Forge invaluable relationships, collaborations, and partnerships that will propel their career and business to new heights.

Inspiring Speakers: Be prepared to be mesmerized by a lineup of extraordinary speakers who have shattered ceilings, defied norms, and paved the way for success. They'll share their stories, insights, and wisdom, leaving attendees motivated to conquer their own dreams. Black Business CoOp Founder & President, as well as CA Senate District 33 Candidate Sharifah Hardie joins the list as speakers for this inaugural launch.

BBCO: Where Excellence, Empowerment, and Prosperity Converge

At the BBCO we ignite dreams, celebrate excellence, and create a path to prosperity.

Gardena Chapter President Chef Lorrie Randall

Lorrie Randall is a dynamic and passionate chef from Los Angeles. Her journey began at the prestigious Le Cordon Bleu, where she honed her culinary skills and cultivated an unwavering love for the art of cooking. Driven by her desire to infuse every dish with a burst of flavor and creativity, Lorrie established her culinary venture, Soul Delicious Catering. With an emphasis on appetizers and small bites, she has mastered the art of crafting miniature culinary delights that I am excited to be a part of this phenomenal organization and to be able to support the Black community."
