In the illustrious Sonoma County Region, renowned as California's largest producer of wine grapes, one finds an intricate blend of prime agricultural landscapes and vibrant urban centers like Sonoma, Santa Rosa, Petaluma, and Rohnert Park. Viticulture and tourism, the region's economic bedrocks, coexist with major employers like Kaiser Permanente, Agilent Technologies, and Medtronic Cardiovascular. This coveted area offers a range of luxurious short-term rental properties, catering to both corporate travelers and professionals.

FINDING HARD-TO-FIND CORPORATE HOUSING IN SONOMA COUNTY

As is often true throughout California, finding corporate housing is not easy. The housing market remains "in crisis" throughout the state, with high prices and difficult-to-find availability. For this reason, having experts who really understand the market is a critical way to identify and book hard-to-find corporate housing. After browsing the website, serious persons are encouraged to reach out to the experts at Key Housing, who know the market inside and out and can help secure the hardest of hard things to find in California: short term corporate housing.
