

Halloween House Unveils Four Locations Without the Fear Factor Offering a Halloween Experience for all Ages

Unlike traditional haunted houses, Halloween House focuses on providing joy, thrills, and fun, all while avoiding excessive fear or discomfort.

NEW YORK, NY, USA, October 2, 2023

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Last year, Halloween House welcomed a over 100,000 visitors across its various experiences, solidifying its reputation as America's premier brand-new fully indoor Halloween attraction. Unlike traditional haunted houses, Halloween House focuses on providing joy, thrills, and amazement, all while avoiding excessive fear or discomfort. This year Halloween House is unveiling four venues, three brand new locations and one in Paramus, NJ, back by popular demand.

Halloween House offers immersive, uniquely themed rooms for a memorable journey. With attractions like the one-of-a-kind "Trick or Treat" Room, the "Glow in the Dark" Room, the Horror Movie Graveyard, the mysterious Vampires' Lair, and more, visitors will have a fun experience without worrying about traditional Halloween scare tactics.

"Step into a world where Halloween dreams come alive, where imagination and enchantment merge to redefine Halloween attractions," stated Michael Dessart, President. "Our commitment is to offer an incredible Halloween experience that caters to all ages, capturing the season's essence without overwhelming anyone with fear."

Halloween House sets itself apart by delivering entertainment through meticulously detailed environments, devoid of actors, jump scares, and strobe lights. Visitors can expect to embark on a journey filled with awe, laughter, and a sense of pure Halloween delight. The indoor experience generally takes 45 minutes to enjoy plus time spent in the gift shop, and other activities which all
