Opening with the mesmerizing notes of "Ironies," the album takes listeners on a sonic journey back to classic rock's golden age. Meredith's distinct voice, paired with electric guitar, paints a vivid picture of nostalgia and emotions tied to places left behind. With deep roots in Enterprise, Oregon, Meredith's history is woven into her music. Raised in the iconic OK Theater, Lane's musical inheritance is undeniable. Fans will delight in knowing her father, Darrell, lends his guitar skills to this latest album.

Teaming up with formidable talents like Zion Mark, Jake Bibb, and Cooper Trail, Greyhound is a true testament to Lane's dedication and passion. Her compelling voice, reminiscent of 70s era Linda Ronstadt, and the album's flavor of the Lilith Fair era 90s alternative, is a feast for the ears.
