

K3 Holdings Extends Support to Residents Potentially Impacted by Looming Government Shutdown

Property Owners Pledge to Work with Residents Directly Impacted by Shutdown

LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, September 30, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- K3 Holdings, a privately held real estate investment firm with extensive holdings throughout the United States announced its commitment to residents and the communities it serves by offering relief and peace of mind for residents directly impacted by a federal government shutdown.

If policymakers in Washington, DC fail to act before Saturday, furloughs of hundreds of thousands of federal government workers and contractors throughout the United States will likely begin. Without reliable paychecks, these workers and their families will be facing tough financial decisions and significant stress.

In a bid to alleviate the financial burden faced by federal workers during these uncertain times, K3 is extending a helping hand to ensure that residents in its properties can maintain their to impacted residents in advance of a shutdown event that they may be eligible for assistance from the company to help with temporary issues brought about by the failure of the federal government to pay wages on time. Any federal workers impacted by the furlough are encouraged to contact K3 at info@k3holdings.com.

“We understand that federal government employees play a crucial role in the fabric of our communities, and their well-being is paramount,” stated Michael Kadisha, Principal of K3. “We encourage any resident who is impacted by a federal government shutdown to contact our dedicated team. We are committed to working collaboratively with affected residents to find tailored solutions that ensure they remain in good standing with their lease agreements.”
