

West Hollywood Preparatory College Celebrates 20 Years of Excellence and Compassion in Hollywood Education

LOS ANGELES, CA, USA, September 30, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- West Hollywood Preparatory College (WHPC) is proud to announce the celebration of its 20th anniversary. For two decades, WHPC has been a shining beacon of educational excellence, serving as the only school in the Hollywood area to embrace and assist displaced families from Ukraine.

Founded in 2003, WHPC has consistently upheld its commitment to fostering academic growth and nurturing a diverse, inclusive community.

At a time when global crises have forced families to seek refuge far from their homeland, WHPC has stood out as a sanctuary for many Ukrainian families. With open arms, WHPC has embraced these families, offering a supportive environment where they can rebuild their lives and ensure that their children receive a quality education.

"Over the past 20 years, West Hollywood Preparatory College has not only excelled in providing an outstanding education but has also embraced the values of empathy and compassion," said Dr. Elina Dvorskaya, Principal of WHPC. "We take great pride in our role as a haven for displaced Ukrainian families, offering them solace, support, and an opportunity to thrive in a new home."

WHPC's 20th-anniversary celebration is a testament to its unwavering commitment to providing a nurturing educational environment and extending a helping hand to those in need. As we look back on two decades of excellence, we also look forward to a future filled with continued growth,
