“As the new Executive Director, I am so excited to soon introduce the new and improved Cedarhurst of Mequon to our residents, their families, and the Mequon community at large. Our teams have worked incredibly hard, and this renovation reflects our dedication to creating a senior living community that fosters happiness, wellness, and meaningful connections,” says Janet Ransdell at Cedarhurst of Mequon.

Cedarhurst of Mequon deeply values creating a sense of belonging and collaboration in and out of the community, which is why we welcome partnerships with local organizations whenever we can.

"We're so grateful to partner with Cedarhurst of Mequon for this amazing donation of appliances to our ReStores," says Jake Brandt, Director of Marketing, Milwaukee Habitat for Humanity. "The sale of these items directly benefits Milwaukee Habitat's work to make homeownership affordable for more local families."

Cedarhurst Senior Living is on a mission to create communities where each person feels loved, valued, supported, and able to live their life to the fullest. President Almir Sajtovic expressed his enthusiasm for the renovation.

"The renovation at Cedarhurst of Mequon is particularly exciting for us because it enables us to extend our personalized, luxury services to the aging population of Mequon.
