ABOUT DIAMOND BAKERY

For more than 102 years, Diamond Bakery has been baking some of Hawaii's favorite snacks. As the largest producer of cookies and crackers in the Islands, the company has expanded sales in retail locations across the U.S., Japan, and the South Pacific and through online sales. Through the founders' dedication, sacrifice, and aloha, the demand keeps growing for Diamond Bakery's Hawaiian crackers and cookies. The company has been steered to its current success with the help and vision of the second and third-generation family members serving on Diamond Bakery's board of directors. Diamond Bakery continues to share heartwarming aloha with people throughout the world.

The Diamond Bakery has achieved great loyalty thanks to time-tested recipes, pristine Hawaiian water, and local ingredients. Each recipe is carefully developed to give customers the ono-licious tastes that have been making people smile for generations.

In 2023, Diamond Bakery also introduced Fundraising to its line of products, 16 oz. bags of cookies in flavors not available at retail are offered to non-profits in our community to enable them to fund projects, equipment, and events. It is another way that Diamond Bakery supports our Hawaii Ohana.

Diamond Bakery. Perfect for all of life's special moments...
