

MeetAmi Innovations Inc. Empowers Canadian Advisors with Certified Digital Asset Advisor Course and CE Credits

VANCOUVER, BRITISH COLUMBIA, CANADA, October 5, 2023

/EINPresswire.com/ -- MeetAmi Innovations Inc. ("MeetAmi") proudly announces a significant milestone: the availability of Continuing Education (CE) Credits in Canada for the Certified Digital Asset Advisor (CDAA) course. This initiative revolutionizes opportunities for IIROC-registered broker-dealers by providing exclusive access to up to 12 hours of CE credits within Canada.

December 31, 2023, marks the end of the current two-year CE cycle, so having this course available now is paramount. It equips financial advisors with the essential knowledge and expertise required to effectively address the burgeoning interest of their clients in digital assets and cryptocurrencies.

Our certified offering empowers Canadian advisors to confidently meet their 'know your product' requirements and fulfill continuing education credits.”

Hashim Mitha

Hashim Mitha, CEO at MeetAmi Innovations, underscores the significance of this milestone, stating, "In today's ever-evolving financial landscape, clients are increasingly turning to their advisors for guidance in the realm of digital assets and cryptocurrencies. Our certified offering empowers Canadian advisors to confidently meet their 'know your product' requirements and fulfill continuing education credits, positioning them as industry leaders in the dynamic world of digital assets."

The digital asset market continues to surge, with forecasts predicting exceptional growth. MeetAmi remains steadfast in its commitment to support advisors in staying ahead of this trend. Our continuous learning journey through the AmiLearn platform equips subscribers with the
