

Tour de Plantersville, Georgetown Wooden Boat Show Headline Loaded Event Lineup Along South Carolina's Hammock Coast

Autumn brings an array of exciting events that showcase the Hammock Coast's vibrant offerings

MYRTLE BEACH, SC, US, October 5, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- As autumn descends upon South Carolina's Hammock Coast, it brings with it an array of exciting events that showcase the region's vibrant offerings. From the arts to eco activities and athletics, the Hammock Coast has something for everyone during the fall months.

Here are a quartet of activities worth building a weekend trip around.

Tour de Plantersville

- Date: October 28
- Location: Scenic Byway
- Event Description: Join us for a day of exercise and discovery with bike rides of 12, 25, or 62 miles, taking you through colonial-era plantations and more. Rentals available from Pee Dee Bicycle Company and Cyclopedia of Pawleys Island. After the ride, enjoy a Cultural Festival from 9 a.m. - 2 p.m. with live music, food trucks, and kid-friendly activities.

About South Carolina's Hammock Coast

Georgetown County's casual charm and Southern hospitality earned it the nickname Hammock Coast. Adventure and relaxation blend together in perfect harmony, like the flowing and ebbing of waves on the county's famed beaches. With six communities – southern Garden City, Murrells Inlet, Litchfield, Pawleys Island, Georgetown and Andrews – comprising the pristine coastal area between Myrtle Beach and Charleston, visitors can experience South Carolina's Hammock Coast like never before.
