

Ameripolitan Music Awards Announces 2024 Nominees

Fans selected nominees in 18 categories for February 18, 2024 live award show

AUSTIN, TEXAS, UNITED STATES, October 5, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Ameripolitan Music Awards, which have recognized talented musicians who embody American music since 2014, today announced their 2024 slate of nominees. This year will be the 10th annual award show, honoring the incredibly talented and creative professionals who come together to celebrate and promote the music they love. The event enhances mutual support among fellow musicians with inspiration for artists and fans alike.

Awards categories include Honky Tonk male/female and group, Western Swing male/female and group, Outlaw male/female and group, Best Venue, Festival and Musician. Previous winners include Ray Price, Jerry Lee Lewis, Charley Pride, Wanda Jackson, Billy Joe Shaver, James Burton, Johnny Bush, WS Holland, Junior Brown and Red Simpson.

Dale and Celine Lee Watson are the heart and soul of the Ameripolitan community and continue to carry a torch for authentic country music. According to Dale Watson, "These awards are presented in the spirit of camaraderie and friendly competition, knowing that success for one of us helps all of us. On behalf of the Ameripolitan Music Awards organization, we thank everyone who has helped make this event possible."
