About iSpiice Volunteering

iSpiice Volunteering in India is a registered non-political, non-religious volunteer organization founded by Varun Verma in 2008. The organization aims to address inequalities in the provision of education and healthcare in rural India and to tackle gender discrimination through empowerment. They provide combined volunteer programs to people from all over the world, offering them a chance to experience life in rural India and act as a platform for meaningful cultural exchange. iSpiice takes a holistic approach to community development by involving different affected groups in program development. iSpiice is always ready to assist the local community in practical ways and aims to be flexible in the support they offer to meet specific needs within the community.
