Mr / Madam President,

I like to highlight a flaw in regards to the Sri Lankan Government's proposal to establish another "Truth Commission." This proposal is not about restoration and restitution, but has the aim to delay and divert international attention on seeking justice for war crimes, crimes against humanity and genocide committed against the Tamil people.

Over the years Sri Lanka has established over ten Commissions with no results. Establishing Commissions is Sri Lanka's time-tested tool to deceive the international community.

This time, Sri Lanka is planning to draw comparisons to South Africa's Truth Commission to justify its current Truth Commission. But there is a major differences between them, namely, in South Africa the Truth Commission was proposed and managed by the victims. But in Sri Lanka, the "victors" who have committed mass atrocities against the victims are proposing this initiative.

Previous "Truth Commissions", which started in similar ways, have failed because the victims do not trust the appointed commissioners. Victims who have come forward have been harassed or worse by various actors for saying anything to these commissioners.

We urge this Council to insist on first getting justice for the victims before even consider a so-called "truth Commission" proposed by Sri Lanka and Refer Sri Lanka to the International Criminal Court (ICC).

Thank you Mr / Madam President.
