Luke describes the song this way, “Make Me Better is about someone who has experienced pain and suffering. They have gone down some wrong roads, they feel alone and lost all hope of creating a better life. Amidst their despair they find someone special who makes their life better. Someone who gives them hope and a future. Someone who takes that pain away. This song shows that adverse situations can be turned around and in this case when life seems so impossible, finding someone special can be life changing.”

The song was produced in Australia by award winning producer Stuart Stuart, Analog Heart Records.
