

WorldatWork and NHRDN sign MOU strengthening collaboration to advance HR in India

India's National Human Resource Development Network (NHRDN) has joined with WorldatWork, a global Total Rewards Association, to sign an MoU

SCOTTSDALE, ARIZONA, US, October 10, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- India's National Human Resource Development Network (NHRDN) has joined with WorldatWork, a global Total Rewards Association, to sign a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU). The agreement empowers them to help upskill the vast HR community across India together.

Their shared objective is to enable India's broader HR community to build the skills needed for today's changed global talent market. NHRDN members will have access to WorldatWork's exclusive learning resources and professional development programs, bringing their members unprecedented opportunities to advance HR practices through thought leadership, webinars and in-person engagements.

"We are excited to collaborate with NHRDN to help elevate the HR profession in India," said Mihai Popoaca, President of WorldatWork. "Our two associations are aligned in terms of vision and future goals, and we look forward to expanding this partnership in the years to come."

According to Sheetal Raut, Managing Director for WorldatWork India, "This strategic alliance will empower our community to grow by reaping benefits from the rich content, thought leadership and access to a global professional member network. This will make a real impact on India's world of work."

"This strategic partnership between the two Institutions will fuel the development of the HR Profession, professionals and the organisations. Leveraging the unique strengths of one another, both the entities will be able raise the bar of capability development thereby making impactful contributions and creating value for society." said Mr. Prem Singh, National President, NHRDN, President (Group HR), JK Organisation

Through this agreement, and by tapping into the each other's vast member network, both associations will add value to the country's HR industry and community through thought leadership content and training,
