The graphic features a dark blue background with a white sun-like glow in the top left. The title "WHAT'S TBVH" is written in large, white, bold letters with a white underline. Below the title, a white box contains the text: "TBVH (To Be Very Honest) is an anonymous messaging platform where you can send anonymous messages, connect with like-minded individuals, and share your thoughts without fear or judgement." To the right, a smartphone displays the TBVH app interface, showing a message from "@benedugoprinco" that says "Ever been to a Nigerian party haven't lived until you've tasted cooked with firewood. Forget dining, 'the real magic happens in square with drums, dance, and pu". Below the phone, the TBVH logo is shown next to three smartphones displaying the app. At the bottom, there are buttons for "Download on the App Store" and "Get it on Play Store", along with the text "or visit www.tbvh.com to get started".

Distinguishing itself from conventional social media platforms, TBVH prioritizes meaningful communication over visual content. Notably, TBVH does not permit users to post images or videos, with the deliberate intention of refocusing user attention on the power of words, thoughts, and emotions.
