Senator Durr sponsored numerous bills in Senate including NJ S3292 which Prohibits persons from receiving compensation for advising or assisting with veterans benefits. Durr also sponsored NJ S1388 - which establishes "Military Pro Bono Program" to provide pro bono legal representation to active-duty members of Armed Forces, Reserve components, members of National Guard, and veterans.

The Senators committee assignments include the Environment and Energy Committee and the Health, Human Services and Senior Citizens Committee.

In 2021 Durr made national headiness by defeating longtime Democrat state Senate President Steve Sweeney with what amounted to less than 2500 in funding. Edward Durr earned a GED, Gloucester City Junior-Senior High School. Edward R. Durr lives in Logan Township, New Jersey.

Durr's career experience includes working as a truck driver for Raymour & Flanigan furniture store.

Senator Durr faces a challenge from Steve Sweeney , the former Senate President who is attempting to take the seat back. In April 2021 Governor Murphy vetoed Senate Bill No. 3456 Steve Sweeney voted in favor of Senate Bill No. 3456 to eliminate mandatory sentences for corrupt public officials.

"Senator Durr has been supportive of our Veterans and First Responders and his sponsored bills reflect such. Durr has been tuff on crime while His challenger Steve Sweeney voted to eliminate mandatory sentences on corrupt public officials. Durr is of the people, and for the people, and clearly will put New Jersey and America First " said Stan Fitzgerald
