

Designer Nikki Klugh Joins "My Father, The Queen" as Set Production Supervisor

CYPRESS, TX, USA, October 12, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- PrettyWork Studios announced today that Nikki Klugh of the Nikki Klugh Design Group will be the set production supervisor for their upcoming feature film, "My Father, The Queen." The announcement was made today by the studio president, and the film's writer and director, Lisa N. Alexander.

Klugh is a talented interior designer and has been featured on HGTV, Home Depot, Martha Stewart, and Good Housekeeping.

She and Alexander have worked together on previous projects including a reality TV series. "Nikki's work is amazing," proclaimed Alexander. "I've watched her create looks for her clients with varying budgets and the results are always incredible," she said.

Impressed with Klugh's design approach, Alexander was convinced Klugh could create a world in which the film's characters could comfortably fit and viewers could easily immerse themselves.

When asked about working on such a project, Klugh said she was "honored to help tell this very important and impactful story."
