

DORIS HOWE HIGHLIGHTS THE IMPORTANT ROLE OF BEING A DAD IN HER BOOK, ADOPTION JOYS 2: DADS MAKE A DIFFERENCE

Doris Howe shares significant insights about being a dad, whether they're a future adoptive parent or a father-to-be.

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, October 12, 2023

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Doris Howe's book, "Adoption Joys Book 2: Dads Make a Difference," celebrates these unsung heroes of the adoption journey, shedding light on their contributions to the lives of adopted children. One of the most essential life lessons readers can gather from the book is the significant impact of a father's love and presence in a child's life. Whether they are a future adoptive parent, a father-to-be, or simply someone looking for a meaningful and emotionally charged read, this book offers insights into the world of adoption and its transformative effects.

Adoption Joys 2: Dads Make a Difference

Doris Howe has extensive experience as an adoption caseworker spanning over twenty-four years, during which she has touched the lives of numerous families and facilitated the placement of more than 150 infants. Her role as a YWAM missionary has given her a unique perspective on adoption and its intersection with faith, making her a valuable source of insight and inspiration for those she serves.

Paul from the United States has rated the book 5.0 out of 5 stars. "You changed how I view families through your book," he says. Paul thanked Doris for elevating the voices of adoptees and families. "I will never look at adopted people the same again; an eye-opener, powerful and enlightening. It is the kind of story that will stick in your mind and in your heart for a very long time," he added.
