connections, proved to be the start of a prosperous partnership. The duo hit the ground running, launching “Let’s Get It Productions” with a bang. Their inaugural track, “Hurry Up & Buy”, boasted features from titans of the rap game, Lil Wayne and Gucci Mane, setting the tone for the label’s unerring commitment to excellence.

Beyond producing hit records, “Let’s Get It Productions” has made it a mission to scout and nurture up-and-coming talent. Their holistic approach ensures artists are not only privy to collaborate with big-name stars but also have opportunities to perform live, from the buzzing nightlife of St. Louis to the glitz and glamour of Los Angeles.

A glance at the roster of artists signed to “Let’s Get It Productions” is like reading the line-up for a music festival. Missouri-based BTH Blaze, known for his scintillating track “Hit My Cell Back” featuring the indomitable Rick Ross, just released of his next masterpiece “Anything” on September 13th, featuring the lyrical genius of KXNG Crooked.

Florida’s songbird Tiffany Leigh isn’t far behind. With her soulful voice and poignant lyrics, Leigh has caught the attention of fans and industry insiders alike. Her debut single “True Enough”, graced with the vocals of Bryson Tiller, was released on October 6th and has been resonating with listeners around the globe. Tiffany's debut solo single "Half Past Twelve" is being released Friday October 13th.

And let’s not forget about ICN. This Chicago-bred rapper is set to make waves with his single “Like Iggy”, a collaboration with the rap sensation 2Chainz, which hits the airwaves on October 20th. One can only imagine the kind of magic these two have cooked up in the studio.

In a world where the music industry is often a revolving door of artists and labels, “Let’s Get It Productions” stands as a testament to vision, perseverance, and the transformative power of collaboration. With DJ CEO and Bryan J Thompson at the helm, this label is not just about hits – it’s about leaving a legacy. The stage is set, and the world is watching. What’s clear is this: “Let’s Get It Productions” is not here to play – they’re here to dominate.
