FORT LAUDERDALE, FL, US, October 16, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- What is Dining Divas? Beyonce says it best... "Divas are the female version of a hustler". The Dining Divas are a group of boss women who know what they want and go after it. Each Diva is successful in her own right. These dynamic ladies have come together in the name of women empowerment and collaboration to elevate together through unique experiences curated around amazing cuisine, exotic destinations and posh dining experiences.

This new series filmed Episode 3 in New York. Arriving in the Hudson Valley area, they stayed at the brand new rental property, The Waterwheel Vineyard where they were prepared fresh fish, steak and a beautiful spread by Deanna, Michael and Robert Spaccarelli. The property is a historic time capsule with unique decor, a true one of a kind country getaway experience. Escape to serenity and take a walk back into history at The Waterwheel.

Dining Divas is educational, with a HINT of fashion and a DASH of personality which BAKES the best foodie and lifestyle tv show on the planet.”

The Divas then headed to Victor Spaccarelli's property. Nestled in the lush green hills of Marlboro you will find Benmarl Winery. Overlooking the historic Hudson River Valley, its 37 acre estate lays claim to the oldest vineyard in America. The winery also holds New York Farm Winery license no.1 and has been growing grapes for over 360 years. The Divas did a wine tasting and ventured around the grand property full of sunflowers, honey bees and scenic views.

Robert Spaccarelli gave the girls a tour of his sustainable living property where he tends to many honeybees dubbing him the "Bee Whisperer". His private home has as much history as the other brothers, even boasting an underground fridge system built during President Roosevelt's time. The Spaccarelli family of New York showed the Divas a true Italian family style welcome.

After enjoying the wine country of New York, the Divas headed to the Hamptons to stay at a prestigious 7 bedroom getaway with their host, Alexis Pomierski Marano. They attended the Great Gatsby event at the Oheka Castle which boasts 109k square feet of gorgeous landscape and architecture. This star studded event was equipped with a fireworks display that was out of this world. The following day they hopped on a quick ride with Verijet, the most eco friendly and safest technology in aviation today, to make an appearance back at the Oheka Castle for a Celebrity golf tournament benefiting D Up On Cancer.

With two non-stop days of glitz and glamor, the girls took a relaxing water taxi ride to Fire Island where they stayed at the quaint but chic Fire Island Beach House. This gem has quality accommodations, unmatched service, quality food and a great scene. If you're looking for the spot for a chill beach vibe with live deer roaming freely and no cars allowed, The FIBH has everything you need.

The Divas dined with special guest Alexis Pomierski, a technology company founder and executive, over a sensational island style meal prepared at the Fire Island Beach House. While enjoying pineapple cocktails and a refreshing watermelon feta salad, the ladies chatted about how women are shaping the future of business and the importance of giving back. Alexis shared insights into how hard work and determination secured her as a top entrepreneur in technology and her passion for supporting the critical mission of R Baby Foundation, where their purpose is to save as many babies lives as possible by providing support to hospitals through training and equipment needs. They wrapped up this episode with an industry pool party inviting several notable guests such as Kavita Channe, Joey MHz, Ali Mehdaoui to the resort. A big thanks to Peak 7 Vodka and Absente for setting the vibe with delicious cocktails.
