Off the field, Bradie James has demonstrated a passion for philanthropy. Establishing the Bradie James Foundation, he has made significant contributions to various causes, with a particular focus on cancer research and support for families affected by the disease. Furthermore, as an advocate for higher education, James has been actively involved with his alma mater, Louisiana State University, always striving to create opportunities for underprivileged students.

Not limiting himself to a single domain, Bradie James has also made a name for himself in the growing business of the CBD market. Recognizing the numerous benefits and potential of hemp-derived products, James has successfully forged his way as an entrepreneur, ensuring the growth and success of his CBD enterprise.

I-Hemp Katalyst firmly believes that Bradie James, with his exceptional achievements and multifaceted experience, will be a valuable addition to the Board of Advisors. As a company that envisions leading the industrial hemp revolution in the United States, I-Hemp Katalyst recognizes the importance of integrating diverse perspectives and expertise in order to drive innovation and positive change.

As a member of the Board of Advisors, Bradie James will lend his insights and guidance to I-Hemp Katalyst's strategic decision-making processes. He will play a pivotal role in helping the company navigate the ever-evolving industrial hemp landscape, promoting sustainable practices, and expanding its carbon sequestration initiatives.

Commenting on his appointment, Bradie James said, "I am thrilled to join I-Hemp Katalyst and contribute to their mission of driving industrial transformation and combating climate change through hemp. With its potential to revolutionize various industries while sequestering carbon, industrial hemp is an extraordinary resource. I look forward to working closely with I-Hemp Katalyst's team to achieve sustainable and impactful outcomes."
