About Andrew Weishar Foundation

The Andrew Weishar Foundation (aka Weish4Ever) was founded in honor of the late Andrew Weishar who passed away at 21 years old in 2012, after a three-year battle with cancer. Before he passed, Andrew had one request: "Pay Forward" the generosity shown to him and his family during his fight. Weish4Ever provides direct financial support to families with adolescents or young adults battling cancer. Now in its tenth year, Weish4Ever has granted out over $2.8 million to families – a direct result of the success of WeishFest and generosity shown by the foundation's supporters and sponsors.
