

MALAYSIAN MUSIC OUTLIER LYIA META TRIUMPHS AS INTERNATIONAL SINGER OF TRADITIONAL POP and JAZZ

The Kuala Lumpur based singer earns top honors including Best Album at the Global Music and Lit Talent Awards, and Best Song at the Cannes World Film Festival.

LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, October 16, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Lyia Meta hails from Malaysia where her sultry contralto voice, rare for a female singer - has been met with some measure of skepticism. Yet, in other parts of the world she's impressed audiences with both her unusual tone and her way with a song, earning her Best Song and Best Album honors for her latest offering ALWAYS YOU. Lyia Meta's ALWAYS YOU is an eight song collection written by Los Angeles based writer Denise Dimin and co-produced by Nashville's Bob McGilpin and Meta in a lush Traditional Pop style. The ballad leaning collection perfectly showcases Meta's rich vocals and intuitive interpretation of mature lyrics. After making a name for herself singing rock music in India and being recognized for her work by Rolling Stone there, she leaned into jazz styling on 2021's EP 15013. Denise Dimin explains "After the success with the tunes on the 15013, I knew she had to sing more of my songs! I presented her with "Always You" a song written just for her...and the rest they say is history."

"This collaboration was born amid the pandemic, a time of uncertainty that paradoxically led to a creative awakening. "ALWAYS YOU" became an exploration of the rich tapestry of Jazz-Pop, with a tinge of blues, a harmonious fusion that reflected the depth of our creative synergy. Denise Dimin's songs found a resonant voice within me, and in turn, I found a haven within the album; a realization that I had finally come home."- Lyia Meta
