Flagship 26 stands as a testament to the company's evolution. Deriving its name and identity from the pillars of Branch & Barrel's journey, it's not just a spirit but a story in a bottle. Every sip is a journey through the notes of dedication, passion, and the distinctive Colorado taste. Vintner's Select Red Wine Barrel Finish speaks volumes about Branch & Barrel's commitment to innovation and collaboration. Taking a cue from the rich tapestry of Colorado's wineries, this spirit is aged to perfection in red wine barrels. The finish is a harmonious blend of classic whiskey notes complemented by the subtle undertones of robust red wine – a beautiful confluence of the vine and the grain. Completing the trio is the 4-Grain Whiskey. It's a symphony of flavors where each carefully sourced grain plays its part, leading to a well-rounded and memorable tasting experience.

"Branch & Barrel's mission is to produce the best damn whiskey in Colorado," said a representative of Branch & Barrel Distilling - and for industry experts and casual enthusiasts alike, it's clear that the distillery is absolutely achieving this goal.
