

Cycle Labs is Mentioned in the 2023 Gartner® Critical Capabilities Report for Warehouse Management

RALEIGH, NC, UNITED STATES, October 18, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Cycle Labs, a leading software company in the enterprise test automation space, was mentioned in the 2023 Gartner Critical Capabilities for Warehouse Management Systems report.* Cycle Labs is a Blue Yonder partner which is recognized in the report (download the report).

We are delighted that Blue Yonder continues to invest in our strategic partnership and we are honored to be mentioned in the report.”

Josh Owen, CEO and Co-Founder

Blue Yonder first chose Cycle Labs as its test automation partner back in 2019. This partnership was then strengthened at Blue Yonder’s ICON event in May 2023 with the introduction of Blue Yonder’s Automated Testing Services (now known as Blue Yonder’s Testing as a Service solution), powered by Cycle Labs. This partnership highlights both companies’ commitment to quality and ensuring a superior customer experience.

Blue Yonder’s Testing as a Service (TaaS) solution establishes a framework to simplify the deployment process and increases your ability to implement the latest Blue Yonder innovations in a streamlined and more efficient manner by regularly completing automated tests against high-impact business processes.

“We are delighted that Blue Yonder continues to invest in our strategic partnership and we are honored to be mentioned in the report,” said Josh Owen, Cycle Labs CEO and Co-founder. “We look forward to continuing this journey with Blue Yonder to deliver measurable and repeatable business outcomes. More exciting things to come.”

Cycle Labs and Blue Yonder’s partnership continues to thrive as they collaborate to develop and deliver even more industry-leading solutions that empower organizations to optimize their warehouse operations, enhance customer satisfaction, and drive growth.
