

Mobile Lactation Pods by BrighterBooth: Nursing Rooms on Wheels

Mobile Lactation Pods are the easiest way to add a nursing room to your office, support new moms in the workplace, and comply with breastfeeding laws.

LOS ANGELES, CA, USA, October 17, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ --

BrighterBooth offers a line of Mobile Lactation Pods to make it affordable and easy for organizations to support new moms in the workplace and comply with breastfeeding laws.

Solo Lactation Pod by BrighterBooth

What are Mobile Lactation Pods?

Mobile Lactation Pods are plug-and-play and soundproof nursing rooms on wheels. BrighterBooth's lactation pods come standard with wheels, power outlets, ventilation fans, LED lighting, comfortable seating, a table, and a mirror. BrighterBooth also offers turnkey delivery and installation, so the only thing we need to know is where the pod is going, and we do the rest.

The quality of our mobile lactation pods are comparable to the highest priced pods on the market. We guarantee your employees will be happy with the craftsmanship and sound dampening our pods provide.”

- Reduces carbon footprint by using less energy, materials, and labor.

The Brighter Nursing Room Solution

Our goal was to create a line of lactation pods that offered the best of both worlds for the employee and employer: private and comfortable while affordable and high quality. We met these challenges with a minimal yet appealing design and by handling every step from inquiry to installation.

We Sell Direct

You might ask why our prices are lower than the competition. Most office pod companies hide their prices and partner with furniture dealers, which means they wildly increase their prices to give their dealers the ability to name their price and haggle with their clients. We cut out the dealers and the annoying sales process by keeping our prices standard and listing them publicly. You request a quote, we send it, end of story.

Guaranteed High Quality

The quality of BrighterBooth's lactation pods are comparable to the highest priced pods on the market. We guarantee your employees will be happy with the level of craftsmanship and sound dampening our pods provide.
