Essential Documentation: What Every Houston Car Accident Lawyer Needs from a Person

A solid foundation is crucial for any legal case. Before meeting with a Houston car accident attorney, individuals should gather all pertinent documents. This includes:

->Police Report: A detailed account of the accident, often serving as a primary piece of evidence.

->Medical Records: These highlight the extent of injuries and are crucial for determining compensation.

->Photographs: Visual evidence from the accident scene can corroborate a person's account.

->Witness Statements: First-hand accounts from witnesses can be invaluable, especially when establishing fault.

->Insurance Correspondence: Any communication with insurance companies can shed light on the claim's status and potential disputes.
