

Growing Stronger Together: ARD Professional Tree Service and Tree Leads Today Thrive in the Tree Care Industry

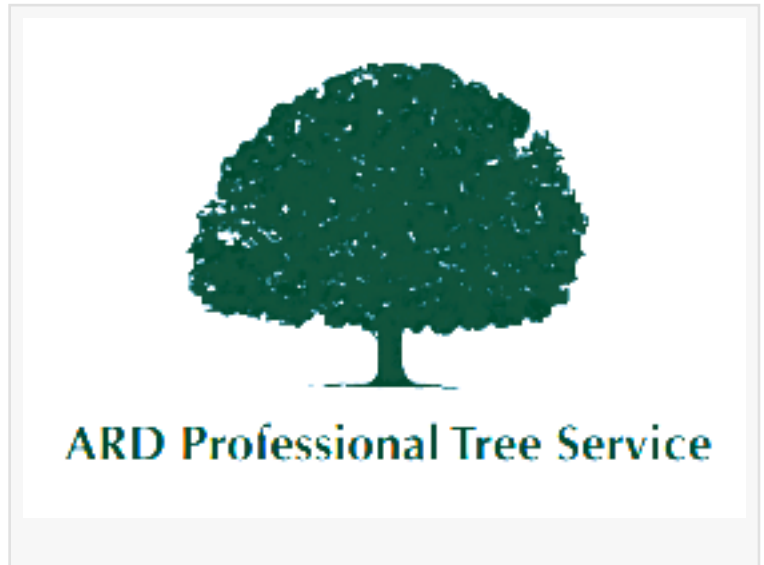

GARNER, NORTH CAROLINA, USA, October 19, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- ARD Professional Tree Service, an established tree care provider based in Garner, NC, is celebrating its impressive growth and success through its collaboration with Tree Leads Today (TLT). As a prominent marketing company specializing in exclusive leads for tree care and removal businesses, TLT has significantly impacted ARD Professional Tree Service's expansion.

Enrique Borrages, the owner of ARD Professional Tree Service, expressed his contentment with TLT, emphasizing the effectiveness of TLT's services. He remarked, "We've been really happy with TLT. Every time we send out marketing, we always get new calls, many of which lead to successful jobs. Our client base continues to grow, including numerous repeat customers."

Since partnering with TLT, ARD Professional Tree Service has experienced substantial growth, boasting an impressive 30% increase in business. The steady influx of leads has led to enhanced efficiency in their operations. While they haven't expanded their crew yet, the existing team is a well-coordinated and efficient unit.

ARD Professional Tree Service offers a wide range of tree care services, including assessments, trimming, removal, maintenance, pruning, storm cleanup, insect control, plant healthcare, land, and lot clearing, crane services, cabling, bracing, landscaping, stump grinding, yard cleanup, seasoned firewood, and concrete work. Their diverse services have contributed to their success in the tree care industry.

Enrique Borrages attributed ARD's success to their customer-centric approach. He stated, "Customer satisfaction is our primary focus. We aim to ensure every client is happy every day. We achieve this by being honest, providing fair pricing, completing work on time and within budget, prioritizing safety, and maintaining a clean work environment."

TLT's geo-targeting capabilities have streamlined ARD's operations by generating leads in a concentrated area. This geographic focus allows the team to move swiftly from one lead to the next. In addition, the proximity of jobs has significantly improved efficiency by reducing travel time.

Enrique Borrayes pointed out the advantages of receiving phone calls as leads, stating, "Phone calls are the best because we can connect directly with clients, hear their specific needs, and schedule appointments on the spot. Moreover, we appreciate that calls are recorded, enabling us to revisit conversations if we missed any information."

To gauge ARD Professional Tree Service's excellence, one can simply turn to their satisfied clients. Reviews are filled with praises, such as Brooklyn L.'s statement: "Professional, efficient, and did a great job removing a few very large trees close to our house. Would recommend Enrique and his team!"

Another client, Christopher O., commended the quality of work, saying, "I was really impressed by the quality of work and good attitude displayed while clearing the trees around the construction project in my yard. I will definitely be working with you again for the next big project!"
