I am passionate about supporting and driving New Reign Capital's mission to innovate the antiquated ways of the work comp industry and uplift entrepreneurs and leaders in the field.”

Carlos Luna, CEO

an integrated workers' compensation services firm committed to investing in companies that revolutionize the work comp landscape, proudly announces the appointment of Carlos Luna as its Chief Executive Officer. This strategic move is set to usher in a new era of growth for New Reign Capital.

With over 16 years of service, Carlos Luna has emerged as a trusted advisor to key stakeholders across healthcare, claims, managed care (including utilization review), insurance, and government agencies within the arena of work comp. His exceptional expertise centers on the seamless integration of Evidence-Based Medicine (EBM) content and tools into claims and clinical workflows, leading to enhanced healthcare outcomes, streamlined return-to-work processes, and improved financial results. A recognized thought-leader on national work comp issues, Carlos' blogs have been published by industry-leading publications such as WorkCompCentral, WorkersCompensation.com, WorkCompWire, Insurance Business Magazine, Louisiana Comp Blog, and more.

A regular speaker on regional and national conference circuits, he has become a guiding voice for the work comp community. Carlos is passionate about establishing a balanced work comp system that fulfills the duties of “The Grand Bargain” between employers and employees.

Carlos Luna's enthusiasm for reshaping the work comp industry aligns seamlessly with New Reign Capital's mission to foster innovation and empower entrepreneurs and leaders in the field.

About New Reign Capital:
